

Web Page

SFUND RECORDS CTR
140243

THE INTERAGENCY PERCHLORATE STEERING COMMITTEE (IPSC)

format:
Word Perfect
or .html.

fix.

↑ move up so all IPSC members listed on the page.

Formed in January 1998, the IPSC is a working partnership of government agencies, State, Tribal, and local governments chartered to address the issues related to perchlorate contamination in the environment. Its purpose is to facilitate and coordinate the exchange of scientific and technological information and provide an avenue for information dissemination. The members of the IPSC, as of May 1998 are:

~~USA~~ Environmental Protection Agency (EPA)
Department of Defense (DoD)
Agency for Toxic Substances and Disease Registry (ATSDR)
National Institute for Environmental Health Services (NIEHS) Sciences.
California Department of Health Services (CaDHS)

CA DHS

Nevada Division of Environmental Protection
Utah Department of Environmental Quality
Cocopah Indian Tribe
Colorado River Indian Tribes (CRIT)
Ft. Mojave Indian Tribe
Chemehuevi Indian Tribe
Quechan Indian Tribe

Additions:

Arizona Department of Environmental Quality
Utah Department of Health Laboratories.

Texas } ?
Arkansas }
New York }